

Vocabulary Quiz: Unit 11, Book C

Student Name:

Period:

Date:

Appease

Decoy

Judicious

Pert

Belated

Delve

Mediate

Quirk

Calamitous

Ensue

Milieu

Regale

Cite

Gallantry

Outlandish

Shiftless

Conventional

Impart

Overbearing

Taint

Complete the sentence: Choose the word from the list above that best completes each sentence. Also, circle either “N”, “V”, or “A” to denote whether the word is a noun, verb, or adjective in each sentence.

1. She'd always felt somewhat intimidated by her boss' _____ personality; as a result, she did not go out of the way to get to know him.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

2. One of the staples of the Medieval Age is the display of _____ among knights, who showcased their bravery and sense of adventure by going on quests.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

3. Her laugh sounded like a dolphin's call; it was a little strange, but probably her most endearing _____.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

4. When he pulled the fire alarm to get out of taking his math test, the first event to _____ was the arrival of the local Fire Department; the next was a call home to his parents.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

5. In order to _____ wisdom, one first has to have some valuable advice to pass on.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

6. If you do not _____ your sources when writing a research paper, you will have plagiarized your work.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

7. Some people say there is nothing quite as satisfying as finding a cool, comfortable place and _____ into a good book.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

8. Despite impressions to the contrary, the senior year of high school is not the time to become a _____ student – at least, not if one expects to get into college.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

9. The _____ of the Harry Potter series is Hogwarts School of Witchcraft & Wizardry, rumored to be located in the English countryside.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

10. Wearing a clown costume may not be so _____ if you are performing magic tricks at a child's birthday party, but it may well turn heads if you show up to church dressed like Ronald McDonald.

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

Write your own sentence: Use the following words correctly – pay attention to tense and parts of speech. Also, circle either “N”, “V”, or “A” to denote whether the word is a noun, verb, or adjective in each sentence.

11. Taint:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

12. Decoy:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

13. Judicious:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

14. Pert:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

15. Regale:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

16. Appease:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

17. Belated:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

18. Conventional:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

19. Mediate:

(Part of speech: N | V | A)

20. Calamitous:

16. (Part of speech: N | V | A)

Extra Credit: Write a paragraph using each of the following words: Pert, quirk, overbearing, gallantry, impart and appease. Your paragraph must make sense, and you must use each word correctly to receive credit for it (half a point for each, 3 points possible).